60611: HOT BUILDINGS

The sizzling Trump International Hotel & Tower Chicago (401 N. Wabash Ave.) has inspired power players to plunk down a million or more for pieds-a-terre or full-blown pads. It's getting big-time competition from the opulen Ritz-Carlton Residences, Chicago, Magnificent Mile (664 N. Michigan Ave.), set to deliver in fall 2012, complete with the hotelier's cossetting services and amazing amenities, including billiard and screening rooms. The sleek glass tower at 600 North Fairbanks Court has one of the best sundecks in the city and usually some Blackhawks to grace it.
